Russians Display New Air Might in Impressive Show

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union kept facts and figures on its new jet bombers and fighters under wraps today, but Western observers said they had seen enough to be impressed.

For two hours Russian air force pilots roared over Tushino Airfield Sunday displaying at least 10 new aircraft including a fighter with a liquid-fueled rocket booster and a big four-engine bomber said to be capable of launching missiles.

The air show's announcer and Tass news agency were long on claims for the spectacular display but short on detailed facts.

Boost Military Budget
Soviet Premier Nikita S.

Khrushchev, who had announced only the day before that Russia is boosting its military budget by a third, watched from the reviewing stands.

Tass said new rocket-carrying planes had equipment capable of "destroying any target hundreds of kilometers away, and no defenses can save these targets from destruction."

Tass also mentioned "jet aircraft for the detection and destruction of submarines far away from Soviet shores" and "a new jet plane armed to destroy any modern plane, whatever its speed and altitude."

Some of the planes whisked by so quickly that foreign military attaches could not focus their binoculars on them — but the supersonic booms shook the hundreds of thousands who watched the aerial show.

Says Show Impressive
"It was an impressive show," said Col. Melvin J. Nielson, American air attaché.

"It is evident that the Russians are continuing with the development of all classes of aircraft," he said. "They are not standing still."

The Western military observers were left to guess at such figures as wing spreads, power of engines, speeds and ranges. There also was no way of knowing whether these planes were in mass production or mainly prototypes.

TAX-BOOSTING BUDGET READIED FOR COUNCIL

Arms Study Called

BERLIN THREATS, RED BUILDUP PROMPT SCAN

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy has ordered the Defense Department to reappraise U.S. military power in the light of increased Soviet arms spending and new threats to Berlin, it was revealed today.

The review, which could lead to a stepped-up defense effort, was first disclosed in Senate testimony by Deputy Defense Secretary Roswell L. Gilpatric. It was later confirmed in a formal statement by Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara.

Gilpatric said the President ordered the review Saturday after Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev announced that Russia was calling off its planned reductions in military manpower. Khrushchev said this was being done because of the current world situation, obviously meaning mounting tensions over Berlin.

McNamara said the United States had no choice, in view of Khrushchev's latest threats, but to "re-examine our needs."

"This we are doing," he said. At the same time, the defense chief gave the nation assurance that "we are strong—if not stronger than any potential aggressor."

McNamara said "nothing that has developed in the United States or the Free World calls for increased militarism." He said America had demonstrated at Geneva its desire to lighten rather than add to arms burdens and world tension.

"However, the fact that the Soviet Union proposed to increase its military spending cannot be overlooked," he said. "The simplest precaution calls for still another examination of our defense posture."

WEST BERLINERS CALM AS SOVIETS INCREASE PRESSURE

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berliners detected a speedup in the war of nerves over this isolated city today, but they calmly placed their faith in the United States to pull them through any crisis.

From Moscow to Washington the increase in the pressure on West Berlin was perceptible over the weekend.

The Russians showed some flashy new airpower in Moscow and Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev let it be known the Soviet Union was beefing up its armaments.

A 150-truck Soviet military convoy during the weekend rumbled over the Helmsdorf route that connects West Berlin with West Germany 110 miles away.

Norstad Sounds Warning
In Washington, the House Foreign Affairs Committee released testimony given less than a month ago in which NATO's European commander, Gen. Lauris Norstad, warned that any serious Soviet move against Berlin would bring reaction from the entire might of the Western alliance.

In Paris, informed sources reported that the 15-member NATO alliance had reached virtual agreement to boost NATO's front-line divisions in Europe from 22 to 30 should Khrushchev touch off a full-scale Berlin crisis.

West Berliners, living in a city completely surrounded by Communist territory, have learned to bet their future on U.S. determination to hang on in West Berlin.

Humphrey Visits City
Kurt Hirschmann, a waiter in a sidewalk cafe along Kurfuerstendamm, Berlin's Broadway, put it this way:

"If they give up on Berlin they might as well give up Rotterdam or, if the Russians so chose, Paris."

As if underscoring Western interest, U.S. Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., flew in here Sunday night and was warmly greeted by Mayor Willy Brandt.

Humphrey emphasized he was here only in his capacity as deputy Senate majority leader, and not on an official mission, "but I will report my findings to the President."

He told newsmen he was opposed to the suggestion by Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., that all Berlin, including the Communist sector, be turned into a "free city."

He said the Communist sector was not a "free city."

NEAR-$2 MILLION BUDGET PLAN IS REVISED UPWARD

A municipal budget blueprinting expenditures totaling about $1,926,502 and anticipating a city tax boost ranging from 34 to 39 cents per $100 of assessed valuation will be up for approval by the Palm Springs City Council tonight.

This is a budget revised upward by $26,717 from the $1,899,785 operating plan proposed last May by City Manager Daniel J. Wagner.

Wagner said the additional $26,717 was put into the budget during studies conducted in recent weeks by the council, but there can and probably will be further changes.

"We can't arrive at a final figure until we have the final totals on our property valuations for tax purposes, but we know the tax rate will be somewhere between $2.02 and $2.05," Wagner said.

He again pointed out that 29 cents of the increase will be for the airport bonds, leaving an actual operating increase of only five to ten cents over last year's tax levy of $1.68.

Final action on the tax rate will not come until about the last of August, Wagner said.

Reports covering FHA financing and minority group housing problems that are to be submitted by Wagner are prime items on an otherwise lengthy agenda for the session starting at 8 p.m. in the council chamber.

There are 17 items from the city manager, ranging from ordinances and zone changes to approval of plans for sewerage systems.

Two hearings are scheduled, one at 8:05 p.m. on zoning in Section 14 and another immediately following regarding a change of zone in Section 26.

Youth and football will be served, Palm Springs police concluded Sunday.

"I did a little plinking with my .22 rifle back of the hills," he explained.

"Why were you running?" a panting officer queried.

"The running is part of training. I want to make the football team in college this fall," the youth replied, breathing easily. Investigating officers wiped their brows, and drove away.

Russia Trip Cancelled As Liz Taylor Again Ailing

NEW YORK UPI — Actress Elizabeth Taylor, reported "not feeling well," has put off for at least 24 hours a flight to Moscow with her singer-husband, Eddie Fisher.

Newsmen trying to reach the couple at the International Hotel at the airport were told by the desk that Fisher and Miss Taylor had left town they were "not to be disturbed."

Miss Taylor's physician, Dr. Rex Kennamer, who is accompanying the couple, said the reason for the delay was that Miss Taylor "is feeling tired."

The doctor said Miss Taylor decided to take a one-day layover to rest in New York instead of an London.

He denied that she was ill. Miss Taylor is en route to Russia under the auspices of the State Department to represent the United States at the Moscow Film Festival.

The couple arrived from Hollywood Sunday night for what was to have been only an overnight stop.

Miss Taylor paid tribute Saturday night in one of her most moving performances to the British doctors and nurses who saved her life.

"There was an awareness of the hands, insistently manipulating my body as if to force it to respond . . . and then—the voices . . . some pleaded with me, some shouted—to cough, to move, to breathe—to live."

So did the raven-haired actress describe her struggle for life and the long, painful hours of semiconsciousness before an audience of 1,000 celebrities at a hospital fund-raising dinner.

The sponsors of the dinner, Cedars of Lebanon and Mt. Sinai hospitals, honored Miss Taylor at the $2,500-a-plate affair as "a symbol of the miracle of modern medicine" because her life was saved by a throat operation at the London Clinic, where she was hospitalized with pneumonia.

"Dying, as I remember it," recounted Miss Taylor in a soft voice, "is many things—but most of all, it is wanting to live."

His wife, Joan, told The Desert Sun today that her husband had been an expert skin diver before their marriage six and one half years ago. However, since that time he was not active in the sport.

She said he was a top swimmer and had recently received a Red Cross lifesaving certificate.

Russians Having Trouble Within, Rusk Reports

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the Russian-Chinese Communist bloc is plagued by increasing dissension and "a growing demand for freedom" among some of the satellites.

"The world of coercion has its problems," the secretary said in a speech before a luncheon meeting of the National Press Club.

"Dissensions within its ranks, national resistance to this modern imperialism, and a growing demand for freedom are among them."

Rusk said the Communist bloc "has learned that economic aid does not buy puppets, that intimidation awakens its own resistance, that the United Nations is tougher than they thought, and that those who set out to 'possess the minds' of man have set themselves against the course of history."

Rusk, in a 2,500 word speech before answering questions, sketched the magnitude of the East-West conflict in broad terms.

On specific points, he said: "The central issue of the crisis is the announced (Soviet) determination to impose a world of coercion upon those not already subjected to it."

Wife Doesn't Let Him Check

LONDON UPI — A Russian guide at the Soviet exhibition here was asked if many Russian women "actually wear to bed" tangerine-colored bermuda-length pajamas on display.

"Dear lady," the red-faced Red replied, "I am a happily married man. How can I answer such a question?"

Racing Car Plows Into Spectators

POMONA (UPI)—Eleven persons were injured Sunday when a racing car driven by one of America's top drivers hurtled out of control at the Los Angeles Fairgrounds and slammed into a group of spectators.

The car driven by Bob Drake, 38, Los Angeles, smashed into several parked automobiles and spectators lining the track while taking a tight S curve on the inside of turn.

The injured were taken to nearby Pomona Valley and Park View Hospitals where three were listed as serious.

Drake apparently escaped injury, but he appeared shaken following the crash. Witnesses estimated he was going 80 to 100 miles per hour.

Indications were that a mechanical failure in the car, "Old Yeller IV," caused the mishap which came under conditions described as perfect.

Officials halted the race at the end of 12 laps and no times were recorded. The win went to Don Huette of Reseda driving a Corvette.

The accident occurred on the 13th lap of the 20-lap main event of the Los Angeles Region of the Sports Car Club of America competition on the 2-mile Los Angeles County Fairgrounds Course.

In an accident in a previous race Jack Gregg of Glendale suffered a slight concussion when his car missed a turn and slammed into a tree.

Another spectator was hurt when driver Chuck Gounis of Redondo Beach hit a fence.

Hoffa Vows No Nationwide Transport Strike

NEW YORK (UPI)—Teamster boss James R. Hoffa Sunday assured the nation he would never blow the whistle for a coast-to-coast transportation strike.

Hoffa, bristling with confidence after being overwhelmingly elected teamster president at the union's convention last week, said "There will never be, as long as I have anything to say about it, a national transportation strike."

The flat pledge came in response to a suggestion that the powerful, 1.7 million-member union might try to halt all truck traffic in the country if it won simultaneous expiration dates for all its contracts.

Hoffa, the guest on a television-radio program (NBC—"Meet the Press"), also reiterated his plans to step up the union's activity on the political and organizational fronts during his new five-year term.

"We will go into politics on a precinct by precinct, block by block basis with our members," he said, but "I have told everybody that we will not be tied to any political party."

Hoffa predicted the AFL-CIO, which ousted the teamsters on corruption charges, would readmit the large union by December "unless the AFL-CIO want to have a weakened federation."

He vigorously defended his record as teamster president and dismissed all charges of corruption against him and other teamster officers.

Red Activities Told On State Campuses

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The California Senate's un-American activities subcommittee has reported a resurgence of communism at colleges and universities throughout the state.

It blames the resurgence for a new growth of radical left-right-wing student groups.

R.E. Combs, counsel for the Senate group, said both wings were under investigation.

Combs, who conducts subcommittee investigations and writes its reports, said that the left-wing groups could be identified by their support of the following policies:

'Extermination' Aim Admitted By Eichmann

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI)—Adolf Eichmann testified today he regarded the Jews as "potential enemies" of Nazi Germany and believed they had to be exterminated.

"But I did not mean physical extermination," he told the court trying him for mass murder. "I meant destroying their physical strength—like that of France and England."

Eichmann took the stand this afternoon after pleading inability to face cross-examination this morning because he did not sleep Sunday night.

The bench accepted Eichmann's plea and canceled the morning session. Later, a bulletin issued by Israeli police said Eichmann spent a sleepless night and was in a state of "nervous tension." A physical examination showed that otherwise he was in good condition.

The police announcement said Eichmann fell asleep after returning to his cell.

Pair Loses Cash As Purses Taken

Two purse snatchings were reported to Palm Springs police this weekend. The total loss was $112. Verenna Fowler, of 30-643 San Gabriel Circle, told police $32 was taken from her purse when it was grabbed by three youths. She found the purse, minus the money, a short time later.

Another handbag theft netted $60, police said. The victim was Lillian Roth of 1577 S. Riverside Dr.

He said that the "right-wing, vigilante groups sprouted up to combat the Communist resurgence."

"They generally oppose what the other groups support," he said. In line with the study of right-wing groups, Combs said that the subcommittee was investigating the John Birch Society and its "front organizations."

Car Seat Theft Charged to Pair

Two Palm Springs youths were arrested Sunday on suspicion of stealing a pair of bucket seats, valued at about $100, from a compact car parked at Kenny Paul's Automotive Service, 530 Vella Rd., several months ago, police reported.

The youths, Joe Blankenship, 18, of 4317 Paseo Caroleita, and a 17-year-old, were taken into custody when police traced the bucket seats, which they had sold, police said.

'AXIS SALLY' LEAVES FEDERAL PRISON TODAY

ALDERSON, W.Va. (UPI)—A gray-haired woman of 60 who wanted to be an actress but used her soft insinuating voice to taunt thousands of American G.I.s during World War II leaves federal prison today.

Mildred Gillars, the "Axis Sally" of World War II has served 12 years of 10-to-30 year sentence for treason, stemming from her wartime broadcasts.

The sultry-voiced former Ohio Wesleyan speech student arrived at the Federal Reformatory for Women here on Aug. 10, 1950.

Miss Gillars was to be picked up by a relative, believed to be a half sister. It was reported she then will go to Ashtabula, Ohio, until Sept. 1. Miss Gillars expects to teach music in a convent in Columbus, Ohio, this fall.

Miss Gillars served about six years at Alderson with her Asian counterpart — "Tokyo Rose," Iva Toguir D'Amico.

"Tokyo Rose" was released in 1956 after serving six years of a 10-sentence.

Capsule Brought Here For Study

HONOLULU (UPI)—A gold-plated Discoverer capsule snared in its descent from two days in space was flown to California today for analysis of its contents.

The 300-pound capsule was caught by an Air Force plane 60 miles northwest of here Sunday afternoon as it parachuted toward the Pacific after circling the earth at 18,000 miles an hour.

The satellite, Discoverer XXVI, was launched Friday from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., by scientists who hoped to see it race through space for four days. For technical reasons, apparently, they decided Sunday to trigger the mechanism which returned it to earth.

The plane which made the dramatic catch, one of eight specially equipped C119s hovering in the planned recovery area, was piloted by Capt. Jack R. Wilson, 36, Toledo, Ohio. After a hook hanging from the plane's bottom snared the capsule's parachute the crew then hauled the capsule into the big plane.

Aboard the capsule were samples of eight chemical elements making their debut in space—iron, lead, nickel, magnesium, yttrium, bismuth, uranium and silicon. Scientists wanted to see how they reacted to the space environment.

Scientists were particularly interested in how the silicon fared because its crystal structure—and perhaps its efficiency as an energy-gathering element—is known to change under the battering of protons in space.

It is this change which researchers will study when the capsule arrives today at the Lockheed missile plant in Sunnyvale, Calif., for examination.

Coolley Trial Gets Under Way

BAKERSFIELD (UPI)—Spade Coolley, television's King of Western music in the early 1950s, was to go on trial in Superior Court today for the fatal beating of his wife Ella Mae.

Coolley, 50, was arrested April 4 after his bruise-covered 37-year-old wife died. Kern County sheriff's investigators said Coolley beat and choked his wife during a drunken rage the night before.

Coolley has pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity to the slaying, but three court-appointed psychiatrists reported he was legally sane on the fatal night and when they examined him.

Coolley's daughter Melody, 14, is expected to be the prosecution's star witness.

Today is Monday, July 10th the 191st day of the year with 174 to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1506, French theologian John Calvin was born.

In 1834, American painter James Abbott McNeill Whistler was born.

In 1871, French writer Marcel Proust was born.

In 1933, minority Democrats on the Senate investigating subcommittee resigned in protest after four Republicans voted to give the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy sole power to hire and fire nonprofessional staff members.

Lowrys Host Patio Party on Fourth

A flag waved in front of Dolores and Dick Lowry's Buena Vista home, when they hosted a Fourth of July barbecue. On the patio, Dick played chef and supervised steaks sizzling to pre-ordered shades ranging from blood rare to pinkish. Following dinner and cocktails, one group of guests queued up for a round of lawn croquet, while others picked their own poison in card games.

After dark, the group enjoyed seeing fireworks at the Polo Grounds, in back-yard comfort.

Present at the barbecue were Don and Billie Lou Floan; John and Dorothy Connell; John and Della Joyce; Shelby and Ruth Langford; and Jay and Dorothy Morrison.

Recreation Association Solves Trip Problems

By GAY PAULEY

Well, our household just solved its 1961 vacation problems. Or rather, the National Recreation Association did it for us.

And a good thing the group got to us in time; we had just bought into a cooperative apartment house and were wondering what we'd use for travel money on a vacation.

To the rescue of us and all in similar straits — lots of longing to go places, little cash to go on — came an association bulletin on how to live it up and love it at home. At least this year, we will be supporting the local businesses.

The association's executive director, Joseph Prendergast, said an at-home "tour" was quite simple to plan. Just write down the things you would do if you traveled, camped out, went to a resort, rented a cottage. Then make another list to see how many of these things can be duplicated in your home town.

Much The Same

Take for instance a vacation at a resort. Once there, you would find out what the resort offers in recreation. At home, though, you could do the same. Just check the local recreation department.

At a resort, you would load up with film and camera. At home, load up with film and camera.

At a resort, you would go on side trips. At home, try organizing a one-day safari, by car, by foot or on bicycles to neighboring points of interest.

At a resort, you might "just rock." At home, "just rock" — or else in the hammock, sit in the sun.

Or, say you planned a camping trip. On one, you would rough it in blue jeans; at home, blue jeans to your heart's content.

Camping, you would cook out. At home, cook out over a barbecue grill or a local picnic area. Camping, you would get back to nature. At home, do the same. Camping, you would hire, canoe, or horseback ride. At home, walk, hike, go boating, hire a horse.

Boning Up

Say you planned a trip abroad. You would collect folders, read books, talk to friends, consult experts. At home, ditto; try investigating your part of the world through the chamber of commerce, visitors' bureaus, public libraries, and the similar facilities of neighboring towns.

Going abroad, you would plan an itinerary. At home, map out what you want to see and then go when the weather and mood say "go."

Abroad you would pack, unpack, pack. At home, skip it gladly.

Abroad you would eat strange foods. At home, see what foreign-style restaurants offer. Abroad, you would shop for the kind of thing you "can't get at home."

At home, shop to buy "the kind of thing you CAN get at home but ordinarily don't."

Abroad, you would take in show places, museums, a zoo. At home, do likewise. History is made at home as well as overseas.

Abroad, you would worry about foreign currency and the language. At home, relax. You're the vacationer not always running out of francs or lira, and you speak the language like a native.

Tracy Floan Celebrates Birthday

Looking like young Wahines, guests arrived in muumus and were given leis to complete their costume, when Tracy Floan was treated to a Hawaiian birthday party in her Vista Oro home.

Hawaiian torches lit the fish-netted patio, where guests dined on an Island repast from a low table. Sitting on grass mats, the girl's enjoyed fried shrimp, barbecued chicken and spare ribs, rice and fresh pineapple. Milk was sipped from a coconut, fiftieth state-style, and a Hawaiian tree centering the dining table sprouted miniature leis and Japanese lanterns.

In the living room, the ceiling-to-floor drapes were decorated with colorful pictures of Hawaii. Each child chose the picture of the place she would most like to visit; and was rewarded with an imaginary trip only after she completed the stunt described on the back of her chosen scenic spot.

As each child arrived, the name of a TV character was pinned on her back, and before evening's end she had to uncover her secret identity.

During dinner, there was keen competition between the youngsters, as they tried to put away the most rice with chopsticks.

After Tracy opened her lovely gifts, a five-layer, yellow and white cake was served with ice cream.

Helping the birthday girl celebrate were Sandy Cosmos, Cindy Karp, Joy Bork, Debbie Bronstein, Marlene Chapman, Becky Glass, Libby Winans, Rosemary Kite, Angela Lusby and Tracy's sister, Laine.

A Dilly

Dilly club sandwiches make a hearty meal. Arrange 1/4 pound of sliced cooked corn beef on 4 slices of white bread, toasted.

Divide cup of dill pickle slices onto beef. Top with 4 slices of bread, spread with 1 tea-spoon of mayonnaise each. Add a layer of cooked turkey, tomato slices and lettuce leaves. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and top with 4 slices of bread. Secure with toothpicks before serving.

ARRIVING AT Honolulu International Airport are Cliff and Marian Henderson, who will spend three weeks at the Hawaiian King. They will return to Palm Desert briefly and then take a motoring trip across the United States.

Villagers to Golf Tourney

A Golf Tournament to be held July 29 and 30 at Circle R Ranch in Escondido, will be well represented by Villagers.

The weekend will combine golfing and social activities and is sponsored by Escondido Elk's Club. Parties are planned at Circle R Friday evening and Escondido Lodge on Saturday evening.

With 250 golfers competing in the two-day best ball affair, Villagers took the majority of flight winning honors last year. Elk's and their wives planning to attend are Messrs. and Mmes. Sam Hinkle, Cliff Sharp, G. Mitchell, Don Jernigan, J. E. Metz, and J. Heiden.

There for the summer, are the Herb Shaws and George Odioines of Palm Desert.

Connie Bryants to San Clemente

When Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association cancelled plans they had made for a company fishing trip, appraisal department manager Connie Bryant was so disappointed, he made his own plans. Last weekend, he and his wife, Dorothy, headed for San Clemente and fished for albacore off The Islander.

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — So you look forward to your return from that long-planned European vacation so you can recount your adventures and experiences to your friends and loved ones?

Well, look even further forward and take it from me: your friends couldn't care less.

I'm speaking from experience, not cynicism, for I have to admit that I, too, was naive on this point after my first trip abroad a few years ago.

At that time, I was on a motion picture location in Egypt and was able to visit Italy and France like fun, dear." Then she would add, "Did I tell you about Sharon losing her jump rope at the beach?" and proceed to relate her own adventures at home.

My husband, Paul Clemens, and I recently returned from a two-month tour of Europe, visiting six countries, eighteen cities and towns. We took along no cameras, no film. Many of our friends didn't even know we had been away. Paul and I don't discuss the trip except between ourselves.

Or would you be interested in hearing about the time we got marooned during a rainstorm in Rome and...?

Seven of the tough little ships have been found so far, six at Navy piers on the East Coast and another at San Francisco. Most of them have been converted to pleasure craft or sold for scrap.

Watch That Dollar Bill

Inexperienced individuals go into business during boom times, and go broke in bad times.

This happens in all lines of activity including farming, and especially during wars.

We saw it in the first World War, and particularly in the second World War, after which, labor, industry and farming all wanted to continue on the war wage and profit basis, and states, cities and the people wanted federal hand-outs on a gigantic scale. No one likes to admit this, but the facts are inescapable in spite of economic theories and political talk to the contrary.

We are now feeling the effects of a generation of waste and inflation. The causes of it are paying for work not done, paying for over-production of crops which could not be sold, higher and higher taxes and federal and state debt, and skyrocketing peacetime federal spending over and above defense needs.

It doesn't take a Sherlock Holmes to discover that our national policy of taxation, waste, extravagance and penalization of savings is causing inflation that is pricing our products out of world markets and constantly increasing the cost of living, as it drives down the purchasing power of the dollar.

To prove to yourself what is happening, paste a dollar bill on your kitchen wall. Mark a red line across half of it for purchasing power already lost. Then remember that you individually vote for the measures and the office holders who pass the laws and spend the money that is taken from you in taxes. Also remember that you are the government and that the laws and men you vote for must reach into your pocket to get money to spend—in other words, you are spending your own money in the public waste you tolerate.

Watch your dollar bill on the wall and see where the red line goes if waste and greed go unchecked.

Letters to the Editor

The Editor
Desert Sun
Dear Sir,

On behalf of the general membership of the Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce, we offer our warmest thanks to you and your staff for your cooperation in the 9th annual Fireworks show.

It is our opinion that much of the credit for both the increased number of sponsors ($4 compared to 21 last year), with the net result of receiving donations just short of $1,100, and the tremendous attendance at the display was due to the extensive press coverage, especially that of the "Desert Sun."

We would also like to express our gratitude to the 54 sponsors,

Chairman Dave Fisher, Pyrotechnician Tom Hays, Chief Kettmann and the Police Department, Chief Leonasio and the Fire Department, and Director Haddock and the Recreation Department.

We hope to have a bigger and better display for next year's 4th of July celebration.

The Palm Springs Jaycees were honored to act as coordinators for what has been properly termed "truly a community project."

Sincerely,
Charles W. Kasmer
President

Remember When . . .

JULY 10, 1951

Reopening of famed El Mirador Hotel, "the scene of many gay affairs before World War II and the winter home of scores of noted personages, will be back in its former glory this coming fall," it was announced by William Berk, president of Angeles Properties, Inc. His corporation had only recently taken over the property.

Four Palm Springs boys were putting the finishing touches on their All-American Soapbox Derby entries, scheduled for inspection July 21 at Stack Chevrolet. The boys were Robert Rock, William Mounts, Richard Brigham and Jody Robles.

JULY 10, 1941

Palm Springs was assured of a first class airport with a federal appropriation of $470,000 for improvements under a measure approved by Congress. It was announced Section 18 of the Indian reservation would be leased to the city for construction of a 5,000-foot runway and completion of the project would mean daily air service.

Frank Bogert accepted the position of director of public relations for the Chamber of Commerce, the first full-time employee. He had delayed accepting to consider a job with Navy intelligence, but agreed to take up the position in September.

JULY 10, 1931

P. T. Stevens, Hollywood and Palm Springs financier and a close student of the depression and the trend of world events, was quoted as believing the World War I debt moratorium granted the European nations would stimulate business the world over and prove a step toward permanent recovery. He planned to go forward with a water development in White-water Canyon that would boost the local supply.

Traffic between Imperial Valley and the coast points is made comfortable (weather permitting) and safe by the improvement of a stretch of the Salton Sea Highway east of Oasis. Most notable among the improvements is the widened highway of 13 miles in the north edge of Imperial County, from San Felipe Creek bridge to the Riverside County line north of Travertine Rocks.

The Link He Welded--

-STILL HOLDS FIRM!

Dear Abby . . .

. . . by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: My husband's boss invited us to their home for an evening. We were told "not to dress up." I almost fainted when they greeted us at the door. The wife was wearing shorts and a halter top. The husband was completely bare on top and was wearing shorts. Both were barefoot. They are in their late fifties, and weigh over 200 pounds apiece. I found it revolting to look at them. Him, with his big stomach hanging in layers over his shorts, and her, with rolls of fat flopping around. In addition to this, the veins in her legs stood out in red and blue knots all over. I tell you I couldn't wait to leave. Are we old-fashioned? Or is this the way "high society" entertains the working stiff?

DISGUSTED
DEAR DISGUSTED: Well-bred people do not entertain their guests in the get-ups you described. This "high society" has a very low ceiling.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow about to marry a widower. We love each other very much, but I am very hurt because of his attitude toward his deceased wife. On Memorial Day he bought the most expensive spray of flowers, took it to the cemetery and placed it on her grave. I've mentioned this, and he says no one else remembers her and he feels it is his duty. I think it is nice to remember the dead, but why overdo it? I have found a new life and am willing to forget my loss. Can't he do the same?

LIVING TODAY
DEAR LIVING: You should consider yourself very fortunate to get a man who is so generous, sensitive and kind. Doesn't it give you pleasure to know that, should you go first, he will cherish your memory and not "forget his loss" quickly. Think it over.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MRS. S. W.: Your son sounds like the kind of man who sows his wild oats six days a week . . . then goes to church on Sunday to pray for a crop failure. Don't count on teaching a 44-year-old dog new tricks.

CONFIDENTIAL TO SYL: Don't be a sap. Let him do his own laundry. He has plenty of soft soap handy.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and include a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Abby answers ALL mail.

This Side of The Sun

By R. F. 'Phat' Graettinger

The quality's fine, it suits my taste,
But the quantity's low, have to watch my waist.

Something new has been added to my place at the table.

BESIDES THE USUAL cutlery component, knife, fork and spoon, (I only need one of each because of the paucity of the repast), there now also is a caliper, ruler, scales and adding machine.

That's because, just as I was quitting the hospital and thought I was all through, the doctor took me to one side, patted my bay window, as it is sometimes called, and said:
"That's gotta go."

HE HANDED ME a long list of foodstuffs, each with a number back of it and explained the numbers were calories and the total input for three meals per day must not exceed 1,000.

That's why all of the extra instruments cluttering up the table.

For instance, after gulping my noon-day pill, I decide on salami and rye bread and tomato juice, for lunch.

I THUMB THE BOOK—tomato juice, 4 ounces, 35, rye bread, 3x4", 1/2" oval, 70, salami, 3" dia. 1/4" pc. oooo! 250.

I punch the adding machine which already has 155 on it as the result of breakfast and I come up with 510. Only 490 left.

I take the ruler, the salami is 2 15-16", within bounds, and the calipers show each slice, shaved paper thin, at 1/16". Easy arithmetic — four 1-16s equal 1/4, so I take four slices, along with two thin slices of 3x4" rye bread and I'm in business. I forgot to count the teaspoon of mustard which registers 10. But I gained a little on the diameter of the salami so I ignore it.

The scales are for when it says "Beef, sirloin, 3 ounces, 250."

THIS DIET BUSINESS is interesting. I've trained down to almost a light heavyweight from the heavyweight class and by fall I hope to be a middleweight. There I'll stop. I have no ambition to train down to where I could ride a race horse anywhere but on the nose.

Besides, when the girls come to call on Mrs. G and the conversation piece switches to diet, I no longer have to run and hide in the den.

I can hold my own and quote calories with the best of them. With my trusty hospital book, I've won several arguments already.

MY MAIN AMBITION is to come to dinner, or supper as they say in the hospital, with only 550 showing on the adding machine.

Then all I'll have will be:
Pie, Apple, 1-6th piece, approx. 8" dia. 1" thick, 300.

Ice cream, Vanilla, one scoop, 150.

That'll be the day!
Only sour note — those new slacks I just bought. They will have to be taken in quite a bit for the anticipated equatorial shrinkage.

New Gadgets Bow in Chicago NHMA Exhibit

CHICAGO (UPI) — Two vast floors of household gadgets opened to the trade today at the 35th exhibit sponsored by the National Housewares Manufacturers Association (NHMA).

Some 30,000 buyers, merchandise managers and other industry representatives will inspect the new products during the five-day exhibit.

Said to be the largest mid-year trade show ever held by any industry, the exhibit of more than 150,000 housewares includes hundreds of new products ranging from purely decorative to work-saving items. They include:

A switch-valved siphon for fast action in mixing tall drinks and slower action in short glasses; a gold decorated charcoal bucket; 3-inch "his" and "hers" pepper mills to carry in pocket or purse and fat-free frypans, coated for greaseless cooking, including a coated electric model that's completely immersible.

Other items are serving tables concealed in end tables; stainless steel kitchen tools said to be dishwasher-safe; a faucet fixer for do-it-yourselfers; a high chair with auto-type safety belt and a one-shot fire extinguisher designed especially for combating blazing grease, gasoline and electric motors.

There's a night-lighted kitchen clock for midnight-snackers; a glass cleaner reputed to prevent fogging of windows, windshields and eyeglasses; and aerosol spray to speed refrigerator defrosting and retard frost build-up; a swinging "Sputnik" that attacks and kills flies; pastel-pink brooms and wood-toned electric appliances, bird baths and outdoor flower stands.

A magnetic hook provides a hanger wherever there is steel; a device folds shirts and blouses for wrinkle-free drawer storage; bath scales stand up against the wall when not in use; and revolving Christmas trees stand with retractable legs doubles as a lazy Susan. There are golden-finished towels, weathers, hand rakes, cultivators, transplanters and short-handled hoes.

CONGRESS RECONVENES WITH HEAVY BATTLES TO BE SEEN

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress went back to work in earnest today after its third 10-day recess of the session. Sharp battles were ahead over federal aid to education and foreign aid.

The lawmakers were not ready to jump immediately into these two fights. Their schedule called for action this week on less controversial subjects such as President Kennedy's cultural exchange program, smaller import allowance for tourists, and a national seashore park on Cape Cod.

Final adjournment of Congress appeared to be many weeks away. Labor day was the announced goal, but mid-September was a more likely target.

The unofficial 10-day Fourth-of-July recess ending at noon today was put to use by most members either to rest or renew acquaintance with the electorate. Similar off-time was taken at Easter and over Memorial Day.

The House program today featured relatively non-controversial bills including one long sought by Kennedy, both as President and senator, to convert 48 miles of spectacular Cape Cod seashore into a new national park.

The Senate came back to a docket including Kennedy's bill to cut from $500 to $100 the duty-free import allowance for returning overseas travelers.

It also planned to consider a proposed merger and expansion of the laws under which this country and others swap students, teachers, ball players, musicians, farmers, and homebuilders in the interest of cultural exchange.

Other congressional news: Delinquency: A House education subcommittee planned to open hearings in the administration's $50 million program to help state and local agencies fight juvenile delinquency. Health: Education and Welfare Secretary Abraham Ribicoff was scheduled as the leadoff witness supporting the legislation.

Stocks: House commerce investigators called top officials of the American Stock Exchange to testify on a proposed $750,000 study to determine whether U. S. shareholders are getting a square deal. The subcommittee sought to wind up hearings on legislation permitting the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) to launch a thorough investigation of regulations governing stock trading.

MARINE SAID HELD 43 DAYS IN BOX 'CELL'

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A Marine lieutenant colonel charged in a brief made public Sunday that a private was imprisoned for 43 days in a windowless five-by-seven foot box for allegedly escaping from a brig on Okinawa.

Lt. Col. James E. Stauffer, defense attorney for Pvt. Stobo C. West, 31, Union County, S.C., charged that his client was imprisoned under conditions that were "unbelievable, sadistic and barbaric."

Stauffer's brief further charged that West did not escape from the Okinawa military prison, but was freed for a 10-day period to help authorities break up a widespread civilian black market operation.

Evidence West gave against the civilians later was used against him, according to the brief, which charged the private was subject to "cold and calculated animal-like treatment" while awaiting his trial on Okinawa.

Stauffer charged that West was released from the box-like prison only briefly to go to the bathroom and on an occasional shower. His meager meals were eaten on a cement floor, the brief said.

West's trial was held a year ago, and Stauffer said the defendant was forced to appear unshaven and in dirty clothes. West presently is in custody at Treasure Island, while the case is being appealed to the Navy Judge Advocate General's Court at San Bruno, Calif.

Throngs Stage Big MacArthur Reception

ILOILO CITY, The Philippines, UPI — General of the Army Douglas MacArthur returned today to the Island of Panay where he soldiered 58 years ago and was greeted by throngs so huge his automobile could barely move.

The general, 81, nearing the end of his sentimental pilgrimage to Philippine battlefields, was surrounded by crowds which police estimated at 100,000 persons.

A group of Roman Catholic nuns, who operate an orphan asylum, posted themselves in front of MacArthur's automobile waving American flags and forcing the car to stop.

The sisters then shook hands with the old warrior.

Time and time again the crowds

Wave Officer Ready to Take On Sea Duty

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—Yoho-ho and a bottle of Chanel No. 5.

In the near future, a pretty lady lieutenant will make naval history by dishing out orders to seamen on a U.S. Navy ship.

And Wave Lt. Charlene Sene-sen, 27, who last Thursday received orders making her the Navy's first woman line officer, said today:

"If they don't send any more women, you'll know why. I've been told I'm sort of a trial balloon."

Just to clear up any scuttlebutt, the pert Chicagoan explained her accommodations and setup on the military transport General W. A. Mann.

—She'll have her own cabin. —She'll share mess and laundry facilities with her fellow male officers.

—She'll put in an 18-month tour of duty starting sometime around the first of the year.

Capt. Millar J. Smith of the General Mann said he's not sure what duty is in store for the brown-haired pioneer.

"We'll just wait and see where she's needed," he said, adding: "The crew is pleasantly surprised and looking forward to her assignment."

The ship carries about 3,500 troops on its 11-day trips between San Francisco and the Far East.

Mystery of Month—Who Named Hot Dog?

By LEROY POPE

NEW YORK (UPI) — Who first called the frankfurter (or the weenie) a hot dog?
The National Hot Dog and Sausage Council, which has designated July as National Hot Dog Month wants to know. Although Hot Dog is so embedded in American life that the name long ago was accepted for inclusion in Webster's big dictionary, the dictionary says the editors don't know its origin.

The origin of "Red Hot," another name for the succulent sausage in a bun, is well known. It was coined by lads who sold them to baseball crowds at the Polo Grounds in New York about 40 years ago. But Hot Dog is older. A "Happy Hooligan" cartoon of around 1908 shows a character making hot dogs by grinding up stray dogs in a sausage machine.

Council Formed
The Hot Dog and Sausage Council was formed by Tee-Pak, Inc., of Chicago, who makes the cellulose casings in which skinless sausage are formed and cooked. The cellulose casing is stripped off in one of the final manufacturing steps.

Regardless of how the hot dog got its name, it continues to flourish mightily, the council said. "This year Americans will eat 12.5 billion hot dogs—69 apiece for everybody old enough to swallow." That's seven more dogs per capita than last year.

Chef Plans Tour
To make sure this happens, the council has brought Otto Schuetz, a famous German chef to make a tour of the country during July. At various swanky hotels, Herr Schuetz will show folks how to use the frankfurter without a bun—in salads and casseroles dishes that are popular in Europe. Schuetz said cold frankfurters are even good in fruit salads.

And he thinks it's a shame that such a noble sausage as the frank should be so often buried in a bun or served only with beans or sauerkraut.

Coogan Morals Trial Under Way

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Former child actor Jackie Coogan's 19-year-old son and two other men went on trial in Superior Court Friday on charges of felony morals offenses against two teenage girls.

On trial with John Anthony Coogan of Granada Hills are Allan Jack Risley, 40, Tarzana and Harry Mehterian, Jr., 24, Sherman Oaks.

The three were arrested March 8 and officers confiscated what they called pornographic films. Two girls, aged 14 and 15, were involved in the incident according to authorities.

Angels, Dodgers Drop Sets

Tigers Nip Angels 1-0, 6-3 In Pair

DETROIT (UPI) — The Los Angeles Angels, their feathers considerably ruffled by Sunday's doubleheader loss to the Detroit Tigers, looked forward today to a week of rest.

The Angels will play one exhibition game in Toronto before they wing to Cleveland to meet the slumping Indians Friday.

The Tigers nipped the Angels 1-0 on Frank Lary's three-hit pitching in Sunday's opener and took the nightcap 6-3 on Billy Bruton's two-run homer.

The Detroit sweep, coupled with New York's split with Boston, put the Tigers back in front by one-half game and one percentage point.

Bunning's 9th Win

Jim Bunning pitched his ninth win against six losses in the nightcap after Lary, whose record is now 13-4, struck out 10 Angel batters.

The Tigers rallied three times in the first inning of the second game off Ryne Duren. Dick McAuliffe walked, Bruton beat out an infield hit, Al Kaline was safe on a fielder's choice, and Rocky Colavito walked to force in the first run. Norm Cash hit into a double play, scoring Bruton, and Lary Osborne singled to drive in Kaline.

The Angels came back with two runs in the fifth on a pinch single by Albie Pearson, a double by Joe Koppe, a single by Lee Thomas and an infield out by Leon Wagner.

Bruton Clinches It

Bruton's eighth homer of the season in the eighth inning, hard on the heels of McAuliffe's double, proved to be the deciding clip on the Angels' wings.

Duren, who led the parade of Angel pitchers, took the loss—his ninth against three wins.

In the first game the only Angels to wring hits from Lary were Eddie Yost, Earl Averil and Lee Thomas. All hit singles.

The Tigers' lone run came in the second on a walk to Cash, an Eli Grba pitch which hit rookie Steve Boros and a single by Mike Roarke, who scored Cash.

Athene Winner

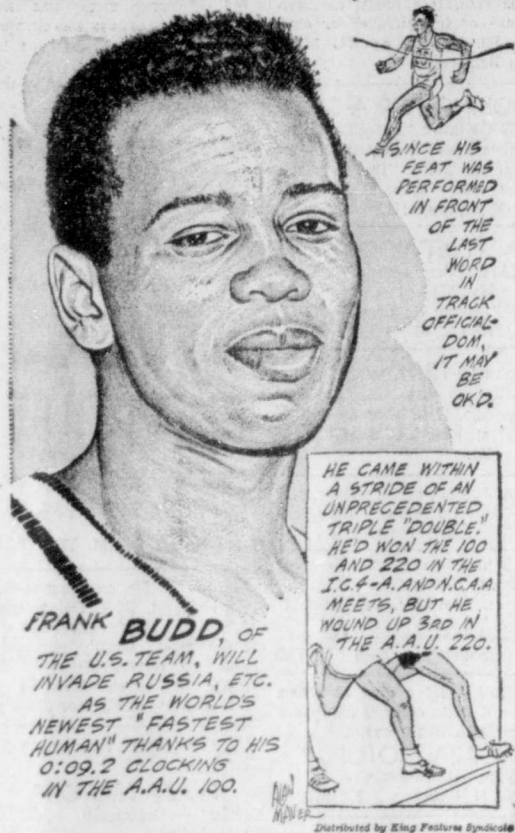

HONOLULU (UPI)—The Athens was declared handicapped winner of the Los Angeles-Tahiti yacht race, according to radio reports received here.

The Good News was second, Novia del Mar third and Morning Star fourth in handicap ratings. The Alert was declared fifth.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Pitcher Ed Fisher, who lost his only two decisions with the San Francisco Giants this season, has been optioned to Tacoma of the Pacific Coast League.

GIANTS SPLIT WITH CARDS TO SNAP LOSS

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants, with the exception of those appearing in the All-Star game, opened a three-day break today and nobody was happier than manager Alvin Dark.

"The fellows and myself have been going through a terrific mental strain," Dark said after the Giants split a doubleheader with the St. Louis Cardinals Sunday to end a six-game losing streak. "It seemed like we were spending 24 hours a day in this park."

'Great To Win'

Then Alvin leaned back in his swivel chair, grinned wryly and said, "gee it's great to be a winner. It looked like we'd never make it."

The Giants downed the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-1, in the nightcap Sunday after losing the opener 6-3 to make it a half-dozen losses in a row.

"I can't tell if we reached any turning point in that second game because it was not well played," he said. "We had three errors and they had four."

Dark was concerned over the status of Mike McCormick, who told him that he has a sore arm.

"Maybe it is just a tired arm," Dark said. "Well, I'm not too sure of our rotation but I'm planning to start Sam Jones against the Phillies on Sunday. He is throwing very good again."

Quiroz Hurls 1st JP Series Win With 18-13 Game

Freddie Quiroz pitched the Junior Police to a 18-13 win over Simsbury Saturday, to give the JPs a one-two chance in the five game Little League finals.

The game saw-sawed with a first inning 2-2 tie, went 5-5 in the third. In the fifth, the JPs ran it to 18-5, with Simsbury rallying with an 8-run stand for the 18-13 final.

The Palm Springs Water team overwhelmed Lincoln - Mercury 21-8, to capture the series. Terry Ostad took the win.

Walt Colglazier was named manager of the year for his work with the Junior Police, and Dick Perkins, LM manager, was named for sportsmanship.

Other awards were to the Drs. Fosterd for league service, Howard Haddock for help, and a general award for donkey baseball aid.

Next slated action is at 8 p.m. Wednesday on the south field.

Jay Leads Reds' 14-3 Bums Rush

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Dodgers today welcomed a three-day cooling off period before the team meets the Philadelphia Phillies Thursday in the Coliseum.

Except for Maury Wills, Sandy Koufax and John Roseboro, who will be playing in Tuesday's All-Star game in San Francisco, the Dodgers will try to relax and unravel the reasons for their three games out-of-four loss in the recent series with Cincinnati.

Sunday's mixture of 90-degree temperature, bean balls and Joey Jay left the Dodgers at the limp end of a 14-3 decision.

Dodgers 5 Behind

Jay's win—his 12th of the season—and Frank Robinson's two homers dropped the Dodgers five games out of first place.

Dodger pitcher Don Drysdale was ejected in the sixth inning for throwing at and hitting Robinson.

In addition to driving in two runs with each of his homers, ferocious Frank sent home three more in the top of the ninth with a bases-loaded double to give him seven runs batted in and four hits in four official times at bat.

Although Drysdale was ejected for hitting Robinson, the Cincinnati outfielder got all his hits off other pitchers. He homered in the first off starter Roger Craig, got his second homer in the eighth off Dick Farrell and drove in the three runs in the ninth off Farrell.

Craig was charged with the loss.

Milestone For Jay

The Dodgers tied the score in the second inning on Charlie Neal's two-run homer and picked up another run in the seventh on catcher John Roseboro's homer.

The Reds also had a homer by Gene Freese with none aboard in the eighth inning.

For Jay it was the first complete game win against the Dodgers in 16 lifetime starts. A crowd of 20,040 sat through the three-hour contest.

Tigers Firm AL Lead; Maris Belts 33rd HR

DETROIT (UPI)—Detroit's position atop the American League was rather shaky. Only a half game separated the Tigers and the New York Yankees while the third place Baltimore Orioles are coming strong.

The Tigers regained the top rung by sweeping a doubleheader from the Los Angeles Angels, 1-0 and 6-3, while New York split a twinbill with Boston, winning the opener 3-0 on rookie Roland Sheldon's five-hitter and losing the nightcap, 9-6.

In other American League games, the Chicago White Sox won two from Cleveland, 7-5 and 9-3; Baltimore beat Kansas City, 8-0, and Minnesota trounced Washington, 7-1.

Pittsburgh downed Milwaukee, 5-4; the Chicago Cubs ran their winning streak to five straight by defeating Philadelphia twice, 9-8 and 8-3; and San Francisco downed St. Louis, 6-1, after losing the opener, 6-3, in other National League contests.

Sheldon, up from class D ball, struck out seven in registering his second shutout in a row. Roger Maris hit his 33rd homer for the Yankees, leaving him 13 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record at the All-Star break. Carl Yastrzemski went 4-for-5 in leading the

Gottlieb Paces 7-2 Victory Over Escondido Club

Star Pony League pitcher Steve Gottlieb hurled a one-hitter at the Polo Grounds Saturday night to lead the local all-star team to a 7-2 win over the visiting Escondido Boys Club in an inter-city clash.

In a preliminary game Alejo Palma beat the Elks 3-1 in a regular Pony League game.

Gottlieb was in control of the situation at practically all times in the nightcap, striking out nine Escondido batters while walking only four.

Palm Springs scored six times in the fourth inning to put the game on ice. Ezell James, Mickey Morrison, Gottlieb, and Ernie Reyes all got hits in the rally with James actually hitting two singles in the same frame.

Escondido failed to score until the seventh, by which time it was too late to do much good.

In the preliminary Dave Miles hurled a four-hitter to set down the Elks, but his winning Alejo teammates only got one hit themselves off Morrison and all their runs were unearned.

Red Sox' 13-hit attack on five Yankee hurlers in the second game.

ALL-STAR SET FOR 30TH CLASSIC PLAY

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Stan Musial, zeroing in on his 20th All-Star game, dismissed the suggestion today that each team could use a couple of days practice before taking the field Tuesday at Candlestick Park in the 30th renewal of the baseball classic.

"These guys are the best and they don't need to work out together," the St. Louis Cardinals' legacy declared. "Everybody knows his position and how to play it. It's automatic."

The game is scheduled to start at 4 p.m. EDT.

Whitey Ford (16-2), who is having his greatest season with the New York Yankees, loomed a solid choice to start against the Nationals.

Stars Don't Worry

"The ball players are too good to be worried by the winds and, besides, I think it blows less during the day than at night," said Musial.

Manager Danny Murtaugh had four possibilities to counter with—Joey Jay of Cincinnati, Sandy Koufax of Los Angeles, Art Mahaffey of Philadelphia and Mike McCormick of San Francisco.

Yankee home run slugger Roger Maris will bat cleanup for the American League, according to the lineup manager Paul Richards announced Sunday.

Temple Leadoff Batter

John Temple, Cleveland second baseman, will leadoff, followed by first baseman Norm Cash, Detroit; center fielder Mickey Mantle, New York; Maris; left fielder Rocky Colavito, Detroit; shortstop Tony Kubek, New York; catcher John Raromano, Cleveland, and Baltimore third baseman Brooks Robinson.

Murtaugh has not announced his National League batting order, but it is expected that Dodger shortstop Maury Wills would lead off and Willie Mays, Giant center fielder, would bat in the number four slot.

A sellout crowd of about 44,000 was expected to see the classic make its bow in San Francisco. A second game is slated July 31 at Boston.
